Dwight Moody Hurt In Car-Pickup Crash Monday Night

Dwight Moody is resting fairly well in the Newton Hospital after receiving back injuries in a car-pickup crash Monday, June 28 at about 8:30 p.m. two miles west of Cameron on the new highway.

Moody, driving a 1953 Chevrolet pickup, collided with Johnny R. Marek who was driving a 1940 Chevrolet sedan John Blansit, highway patrolman said. Moody was coming toward Cameron when Marek pulled out in front of him at the cross road coming from the auction barn, Blansit said.

Moody swerved to miss Marek but his pickup side swipped the Chevrolet turning Moody over and plunging down a steep bank about 15 feet. Marek was uninjured in the crash.

Moody was undergoing X-ray examination at the Newton hospital Tuesday morning. It was thought by hospital attendants that his injuries were not too serious.

National Guard Practice Alert Turns Out To Be Successful Here

Lloyd Albertson

The practice alert for members of Battery C, 649th Anti-aircraft Artillery Battalion was put into effect late Wednesday evening, and it proved to be a demonstration of how quickly and smoothly the Guardsmen could act in case of an actual emergency.

Within minutes after a call to put the alert into effect was received from 649th Battalion headquarters in Temple members of Battery C began converging on the Armory.

Advance notice to call the alert was received by the Battery Commander, Capt. James T. Terry, about 4:15 p.m. The mobilization leaders of the unit were notified at 6 o'clock. They immediately began contacting all Guardsmen in the area. The call tto report also was carried on several radio and TV stations in this area and some Battery members learned that the alert, which had been expected for the past week, had been called.

CWO Eugene A. Mees, Administrative Assistant, said that 14 officers and men had reported at the Armory by 6:30 p.m., 32 by 6:45 and at by 8 p.m., when the alert was concluded, 63 officers and men were present. This was an exceptionally quick turnout, it was believed, since members were not called by telephone, but were contacted personally by the mobilization leaders.

This is the second alert for the local Guardsmen. Last year they were alerted on the night after the tornado struck Waco and damaged that city.

Dusek Pharmacy Robbed For Third Time In Two Years

Dusek Pharmacy was robbed Sunday night for the third time in the past two years.

About $25 and two bottles of Dolophine tablets, a mild narcotic, were taken.

In an interview early this morning Alvin Dusek, manager and co-owner, told the Herald that apparently it was the same person or persons who broke into the store the two previous times.

"We think it is the identical burglar because the door has been forced in the same manner in all three burglaries, Dusek said.

Apparently they have some kind of flat crowbar which they use to open the door where they forced it. On the other door there were heel marks where the prowler kicked or shoved against it.

The door to the drug store was found standing wide open this morning by Carrol Ward of the Texas Power and Light Company when he came to work.

"The thief probably broke in about daylight when the night watchman went off work" Dusek said. Otherwise the door would have been noticed standing open.

The prowler rummaged through the safe which was broken in the previous robbery, and also looked in filing cabinets and desk drawers.

"They didn't make much of a mess this time," Dusek said. "Last time the whole place was torn up."

As before, the Narcotics case was broken into and some "dope" worth about $10 taken. "This stuff that they got is very mild," said Dusek. "We keep all our potent narcotics in a bank safety deposit box."

Carl Black, sheriff, is investigating.

Milam Committee Favors Counting Only Demo Votes

At a recent meeting of the Milam County Democratic Executive Committee members were alerted when one of the committeemen called their attention as to why Democrats are Democrats. Some of the committeemen expressed their opinion that no one but democrats should be allowed to vote in the Democratic Primary.

This discussion was preluded by a firey, yet factual talk by committeeman E. A. Camp of Rockdale precinct 15. "Much consideration should be given to our democratic principles," Camp said, and went on to say he had been a firm believer in what the Democratic Party stood for and did not like the way the Republicans came in two years ago and took over. There should be more interested aroused in the president's and governor's precinct conventions. H. B. Pressley com-

Cameron Theatre To Have New Upholstery; Closes Monday

The best seating material available will soon be installed in the Cameron Theatre, Dean White, theatre manager, said.

The material, which is called rose doeskin malibou, was developed only recently and was not available when the seats were last covered.

So that this work and additional remodeling can be done, The Cameron Theatre was closed beginning on Monday and until furthur notice, on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays all day and on Fridays until 6:45 p. m. It will open on Fridays 6:45 p. m. and will show at usual times until the following Monday.

While the remodeling is being done, the Cameron and Milam theatrea will reverse their schedules. The Cameron will run shows scheduled for the Milam on Friday nights, Saturdays, and Sundays. The Milam will run the full Cameron schedule until furthur notice.

The installation of the new seating material, which will be done by R. H. Henderson and Associates of Dallas, is expected to take about three weeks. Work began Monday, June 21.

"This company is supposed to be one of the best in that type of business," White said. "They specialize in theatre seating."

New upholstery is only part of the remodeling that is planned for the Cameron during the next few weeks. The lobby and inside walls will also be cleaned and painted, and needed repairs made.

Symptoms Of Polio Should Be Checked

This is the season of the year when an increase in poliomeylitis can be expected and Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer, is urging the public to cooperate in helping to prevent the spread of this crippling disease.

"Children should not visit homes where poliomeylitis or symtoms of this disease are present. Promptness in diagnosing is one of the most important factors in its control," Dr. Holle declared.

"Direct contact between persons is the chief factor in the spread of infantile paralysis and since carriers are difficult to determine, it is advisable to reduce to a minimum all human contacts during any outbreak of this disease."

Dr. Holle stressed the fact that a rigid program of sanitation is advisable since it has been suspected that flies and other seasonal insects may convey the virus or germ of poliomeylitis. He added that insect transmision has not been scientifically demonstrated but pointed out that sanitation is always advisable in controlling disease and that filth is likely to prove dangerous.

Early symptoms of infantile paralysis are headache, fever, vomting, unusual drowsiness, and irritability, followed by stiffness in the neck and back.

Children under five years are most susceptible and all children under twelve years should be watched for suspicious symptoms. Dr. Holle urged that a physician be called immediately if infantile paralysis is suspected. If the disease is definitely diagnosed, local health authorities should be contacted immediately and patients isolated for at least 21 days.

Korean GIs Urged To Begin Training Before Cut-off Date

Veterans planning to start Korean GI Bill training before the forthcoming August 20 cut-off date were urged by the Veterans Administration to give extra-special thought to their choice of a training program.

The reason, VA said, is that after the cut-off date, the law tightens up appreciable on a veteran's right to change his course.

He no longer will be allowed to make his one-day-only course change with the same ease that it could be made before the deadline.

At any time before the cut-off date, the Korean GI Bill permits a veteran one change of course. So long as his conduct and progress were satisfactory, he has a relatively free hand in making the change. It could be from law to engineering; from air conditioning to airplane mechanics; the choice was his.

But once the cut-off date passes, VA said, the one-and-only free change-of-course provision no longer holds good.

After that time, a veteran may change his course only under one of the following circumstances:

1. The course he wants to change to is normal progression from the course he has already taken. For example, if he obtained his BA degree, he would be permitted to change to an MA degree.

2. He Hasn't been making satisfactory progress in the course he was taking, due to no fault of his own. If this is the case, he will be required to undergo VA vocation counseling, to help him select a new course more in keeping with his aptitudes and abilities.

The August 20 Korean GI Bill cut-off date applies only to post-Korea veterans separated from active service before August 20, 1952. Veterans who got out of active service after that date have two years from separation in which to begin their training.

Newly-separated veterans in the latter group need not worry about having their one-change-of-course rights curtailed until after their individual cut-off-dates come around, VA said.

Social Security Is Considered Most Valuable Possession

Your social security card is one of your most valuable possessions. It is the key to your social security account; the account on which payments made under Old-Age and Survivors Insurance will be based.

You should be certain that you get a social security number as soon as you go to work on a job that covered by social security. If you are self-employed, in most any trade or business, you will also need a social security number.

If you work for someone else make sure that he copies your name and number for his records exactly as it appears on your social security card. He uses this information in the reports he makes every three months of the wages he has paid you. The benefits paid on your account are based on these reports.

July Draft Calls For 1,187

The state draft call for July—1,187 men - will be the biggest monthly quota for the past six-months period, Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state Selective Service director, said.

At the same time, General Wakefield said, the state draft headquarters is planning to send 2,417 men for the combined physical-mental examinations in July.

"The national quota was increased from 18,000 to 23,000 in July," General Wakefield pointed out.

Cause for the increase, General Wakefield said, was the fact that more men will be getting out of uniform during the government's next fiscal year than were separated during the present fiscal year. The present fiscal year ends June 30.

Chastening Time

I lie on my bed hurt and helpless
And hear the music of Spring,
The flowers are singing love tunes;
The birds answtr on the wing.

All earth entreats me to come
Out in the glorious wood.
My spirit cries out in longing
"I would join you if I could!"

But God is the ruler of my life
And He knows what is always best,
This is for me a "chastening time"
I shall me[illegible]e and find rest!

Dams Preventing Flood Losses

H. N. Smith, State Conservationist for Texas, declared municipal and industrial users of water have no cause to worry in connection with the evaporation of water from the small reservoirs in Soil Conservation Service upstream flood prevention.

The 40 flood prevention dams already built in the Trinity River Watershed are preventing many thousands of dollars of flood losses every year along the small creeks where the dams have been built. In addition farmers can now raise crops on several thousand acres of fertile bottomland which have been flooded too frequently for cultivation.

Smith explained that critics have said that if many flood prevention dams are built in the headwaters of streams the water supplies may be seriously reduced by evaporation from the pools of the structures. Actually the evaporation loss from the pools of upstream flood prevention dams would be small compared to the average flow of the streams.

In addition to the annual flood damages prevented in upstream areas, the flood prevention dams will reduce the rate of sedimentation of the major reservoirs by more than 50 percent. It is obvious, said Smith, that the combined benefits of the upstream dams far outweigh any small effect which they may have on water supply.

CLINIC REPORT

"Can We Ignore Such Amazing Results?"

HEAD PAINS

A man aged 55 years complained of shooting pains over left side of head for two years. These pains were constant every day. Sometimes the pain would dart into the ear area and would cause dizziness. He suffered from Asthma, too, and the coughing made the head pain unbearable. He went to various well known clinics where head X-rays were made for suspected brain tumor. No help could be had until he came to a Chiropractic Clinic where he found that a fall from a horse and a kick from the horse had misaligned a neck vertebra causing nerve interference and defective nerve waves to the head and lungs. Corrective adjustments restored alignment which permitted a return to normal energization after which all pains ceased and did not return and the Asthma which had been a regular complaint, disappeared. This man works daily in a supervisory capacity and claims he feels just grand.

NERVOUSNESS

A man of 33 years came in complaining of nervousness, jerky, jumpy feeling, indigestion with dizziness, awaking tired in the mornings, numbness in left arm and hand and pains in shoulder and lower back, also fever and catarrah. A spinal analysis located defective nerves and X-rays disclosed vertebrae causing nerve interference. Adjustments restored spinal alignment and removed nerve interference. When last seen, this case reported he was feeling fine in all respects.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

A man of age 60, weighing 180 lbs., came in with a painful stiffness in his neck which made it impossible to turn his head. He reported high blood pressure and frequent colds. After examination disclosed the cause of his trouble to be a spinal nerve wave interference, we attempted to correct the faulty alignment. This case was discharged free of pains and with blood pressure normal.

AGREED!

NECK INJURIES: Injuries to the neck are common and unless stiffness and pain are marked or persistent, most of us are inclined to forget the incident. All too often some damage is done and years later, symptoms appear. Many vital structures are crowded into a tiny space in the neck area and the openings in the vertebrae through which the nerves exit are small. This makes them more vulnerable to pressure and irritation which in turn leads to discomfort in the shoulder, arm, neck or head . . . . A single mishap may be responsible but in many instances it is the cumulative effect of several. Months or years after the injury, a clicking sound, soreness or stiffness in the neck may be the first indication.

Infection, arthritis, ruptured disc, hemorrhage and trauma are the most common factors in producing distress ... Excerpts, "How to Keep Well," Chicago Tribune, by T. R. Van Dellen, M. D.

Farmers Should Begin Late Insect Control Program

Cotton farmers should soon begin their late season insect control program to insure a minimum loss from insects.

As squares begin to appear, they should be closely examined for punctures.

Normally cotton should be treated when 15 percent to 25 percent of squares are punctured, but under some conditions it may be necessary to treat sooner.

Treatments should be made at 4 or 5 day intervals, which usually requires 3 or more applications. Late in season after crop is set and squares are scarce, one or more applications should be made to protect bolls.

A new line of late season cotton insect poisons has just arrived at Burkes-Howard Company.

They have a complete stock of Stauffer and Chipman insecticides in both dust and spray sypes.

The poisons include Heptachlor, Dieldrin, Aldrin, Parathion, toxophene, and a mixture of toxophene and DT.

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER HAS IDEAS ON A NEW PLAN TO SELL PEOPLE THEIR VACATION TRIPS ON INSTALLMENT PLAN

Editor's note: The Little River Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Little River writes about something he's an authority on this week, vacation

Dear editar:

As a strong advocate of installment buyin — I'm not only in favor of a small downpaymen and the rest in installments, I'm also in favor of cuttin the downpayment up into installments too and frequently would like to cut the installments into installments —I was interested in readin about a new branch of service now available on the installment plan

Accordin to this item, you can now buy a vacation trip on the installment plan. Just pick out a trip you'd like to take make a small downpayment on it, and they'll furnish you a ticket on a bus, train or airplane, furnish you hotel rooms meals, etc., and when you get back home you can pay the rest out in monthly installments.

Now I am highly in favor of such a system, and rate it right alongside my favorite plan for getting the post office to sell money orders on the installment plan, but there is one question that has been bothering me about it.

What I'd like to know is, if you fail to meet an installment, how do they re-possess your trip?

I have thought about this long and hard, letting it crowd out Indo-China, Guatalama, parity prices, and the governor's race, but I'll admit I'm still puzzled.

The only thing I can think of is this: I guess they could threaten to send you right back over the same ground, and in most cases it would probably bring in the money. My observation has been that most folks, after they get in off a vacation trip of several hundred or a thousand miles or more, had rather take a beating than have to pack up again and had have to retrace their vacation steps, drink all the soda water again, eat all the hamburgers, look at the same sights, do the same things, wrestle with the same children, swelter under the same hot sun, and most people would re-finance their washing machine or their car to pay off the vacation installments.

Vacations are great things, I suppose, but most people have em reversed. They work all year in order to get a two-weeks trip, but I'd rather have a vacation all year and work two weeks. I'm workin on that plan now.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Yankies Hold On To Lead By Nipping Indians

The Yankies stayed out in front in the Little League baseball standings here Friday night by nipping the Indians, who have a steadfast hold on last place, 6 to 2.

Losing pitcher was Luther Edmondson and catcher was Charles Hollas. Taking the win for the Yankies was Eddy Williams with G. Johnson catching.

While the Yankies counted up 5 hits, the Indians managed only 3 singles. It was the third inning that iced the game for the leading team when they scored three runs.

The Braves were forced to use three pitchers in the second game that went only two innings, but the White Sox blast their way to 18 to 1 victory. The one-sided win tied the two teams for second place in the Little League standings.

Pitching wildness gave the ball game to the White Sox, who only collected four singles, a double and a triple. Opening the game for the losing team was C. McGregor. He was relieved in the first by Ivan Vogelsang, who later gave way to B. Van Degewhe. Mark Perrin was the catcher.

The victory was pinned on to Charles Fikes. Completing the battery for the White Sox was J. Heitman.

The White Sox ran the score up 8 points in the first inning, and added their remaining 10 in the second. Due to the time, the game was called at the close of the second inning.

The Braves had two singles for the night.

The baseball standings finds the Yankies out ahead with two wins and no losses or ties; the White Sox and Braves, each playing two games, have lost one and won one to tie for second place. Holding the cellar position in the league are the Indians with two losses against them.

A dissapointing number of square dancers showed up Friday night at the tennis courts. There were only three squares formed, a drop from last week's. It is hoped that more boys and girls will turn out for the events in the future.

Girls Clash; Close 14 - 13 Victory Taken

It was a free-hitting, but close ballgame at the City Park Tuesday night when the girls teams took sides in the Summer Recreation League.

Team one, coached by Richard Williams, came through with a narrow 14-13 win over Team two directed by Leo Jackson. Besides having a large turnout of players, a large crowd of spectators was on hand to boost their favorite team.

The game was a narrow decision, and the winning team put it in the bag when they scored an extra run in the bottom on the seventh.

Team one made three points in the first inning, none in the second and doubled their score in the third. They added three more in the next round and two scores in each the fifth and sixth inning. The 14th score was in the seventh.

But team two took things easy from the start and and didn't open their scoring until the second inning when two runs were accounted for. It was an open affair in the the third when they slugged out seven runs. Two scores were added in each the fifth and sixth inning to tie the score, 13-13. No points were made in the seventh.

Team two, although losing, out hit team one. They collected 21 hits to William's teams 18 hits.

Marking up the victory was Mary Jo Varner, who twirled the entire game and Carol Ann Sanders did the catching. Sissy Varner pitched for team two and Evelyn Vybiral was behind the plate.

Millie McCall led the winners with two singles, one double and one home run. Mary Jo Varner also had a home run for the winners.

Betty Gibbs collected 1 double 1 triple and a home run to lead the lossers.

Also on Tuesday night the senior and junior boys volleyball teams met at the high school tennis courts with Charlie Michalka in charge. The junior boys tennis players met earlier at the courts with Scott Irvin in charge.

Children of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hoelscher are William, Rudolfhine, Paul and Albert, who are members of the sixth generation.

Concluding the Cameron residents of the Hoelscher aggregation are the two and half year old twin sons of Mr. and Mrs.Hanel, Frank and John who are listed in the seventh generation of the family.

Edward Hoelscher of Rowena is the general chairman of the reunion while Mrs. J. C. Miller of Westphalia is co-hairman. Various other committees are also assisting. Preparing barbeque will be A. C. Hoelscher and Ray Hoelscher, both of Westphalia.

mitteeman from precinct 18 stated, "that a man ought to be what he says he is and there ain't no two ways about it." Other committeemen were in agreement with both Pressley and Camp and expressed their intentions that the Democratic party should return to the democratic fold from out of hands of the so-called democrats who are (in what members of the committee label) Republicans or special interest groups that have taken charge of the county conventions.

Chairman Max McClaren said "that there is a loyalty pledge on the official ballot which reads as follows: I am a Democrat and pledge myself to support the nominee of this primary, and if a person is not a democrat and votes in the Democratic primary, he is taking an oath or pledge which he does not intend to keep or have the intestinal fortitude (guts) to stand by." Chairman McClaren said that election managers will be mailed sufficient instructions relative to the loyalty pledge in order to keep the primary Democratic.

Judge James C. Sewel, Chairman of the Texas Democratic Advisory Council, mailed each Democratic chairman of every county in the state a notice stating that the county committee did not have to go by the action taken by the state committee in their meeting relative to counting the Republican votes as well as the democratic votes in naming delegates to the county and state conventions. He said in his letter to Chairman McClaren that the state committee has no legal basis in trying to count the republican votes along with the democratic votes, that the Democrats don't need and surely don't want the Republicans votes. Committeeman Camp also emphasized this point at the committee meeting, "saying that the Republicans don't want our votes why should we want the republican's votes.

Judge Sewel followed up his letter to the chairman with a telephone call relative to the issue on counting only Democratic votes in determining delegates to the conventions. In the telephone conversation with chairman McClaren, Sewel, said, "He figured that Governor Allan Shivers and his administration was doing all within their power to turn out state over to the republicans, and had deliberately and designedly worked to do just that. He said that for 20 years Shivers has sought and received the highest honors the Democratic Party had to bestow, yet, Shivers went ahead betraying his party trust in 1952 in working for the Republicans, now he is having a hard time trying to explain to the voters of Texas such Republican achievements as lower income for our farmer, higher interest rates for those buying homes and running a business, the loss of jobs, the growing chance of sending our boys to Indo-China, the wild recklessness of his young fellow Republican McCarthy and the Republican desire for a nationwide sales tax." Judge Sewel mentioned many other incidents that were anti-Shivers.

Concluding the conversation, Judge Sewel said, "People of Texas remember that not a single Democrat official who supported Republican Herbert Hoover in 1928 ever again was elected, even to the office of dogcatcher. As the people of Texas learn more about Shiver's betrayal to the Democratic Party, they will be disgusted with his administration. Thousands of voters over the state who voted republican in 1952 are back supporting the Democratic principles since the Republican Campaign Platform promised so much and has done so little for the majority of the people. Republicans will always favor the big-wheels and special interest. I feel like the people of Texas have learned their lesson and will return to the fold where they can be given what they are promised. The country was very prosperous under the Democratic Administration but what has the Republicans done for us, Nothing." Judge Sewel told chairman McClaren to use any of his statements during the conversation for publicity as he believes that the people of Texas should and would like to know that anybody with any logical reasoning that the state committees decision in counting Republicans votes was utterly ridiculous and absurd. A heavy majority of the counties will not count the Republican vote was his guess," Sewel related.

Committeeman George Leath, precinct 2, said, "that he was thinking about organizing a women's club to get Shiver's wife to vote against her husband. This would be quite a novelty. So many of the women over the state are organizing such groups why should Milam County be any exception."

Most of the committeemen have been members of the committee for many years and voted to support the principles of the Loyal Democrats.

Chairman McClaren said, "The County committee tries to establish its decisions and viewpoints about matters, especially controversal issues, on an integral basis, taking in consideration what is best for the majority of the people which is a democratic principle in every respect.

Word has been received from several of the chairmen from surrounding counties, stating they will count only the Democratic vote in regard to the delegate issue, McClaren, said.

soon as possible in order that they may be ready for absentee voting that begins 20 days prior to the July election. Absentee voting acording to Texas statutes is due to begin on July 4, however, that day comes on Sunday, and will probably not begin until Monday or maybe Tuesday since some of of the courthouse officials over the state may take Monday as a holiday. There has been no official information relative to whether the courthouse at Cameron will take a holiday or not on July 5.

The ballot this year will be about the same size as the one two years ago since approximately the same number of candidates filed request to get their name on the ballot. Absentee voting in this county is usually light with less than 200 voting absentee ballots in the 1952 primary.

Voters who wish to vote absentee ballots may stop in at the office of County Clerk, Homer Nabours any time after July 5 and cast their ballot for the candidates of their choice. The ballots will again be headed with the instructions, "You may vote for the candidate of your choice by placing an X in the square beside the name or you may vote for the candidate of your choice in each race by scratching or marking out all other names in that race." The loyalty oath "I am a Democrat and pledge to Support the Nominee of This Primary" also will be on the ballot in its usual place.

Election managers will be mailed instructions about proper election procedures. Voters are urged to be consistent in marking their ballot. Use only one of the two methods prescribed by law listed at the top of the ballot. Do not use part check system and part scratch method. This is confusing to the election judge and clerks and may cause your ballot not to be counted. Marking the ballot corectly is of great importance to the election officials and expidites procedures in making returns.

OFFICIALS —

ed by the court and brought by quo warranto proceedings.

The ballot committee met this week and determined by lot the position the candidates names will be placed on the primary ballot using the same procedure in determining the position of county and district officials.

There are only six state-wide contested races this year. They include: the Governors race; Lt. Governor; Attorney General; United States Senator; Supreme Court of Texas Place No. 1 and Court of Criminal Appeals.

In drawing for places on the ballot the names of candidates for the various offices will be listed in the following order: For Governor, 1. J. J. Holmes; 2. Cyclone Davis; 3. Allan Shivers; 4. Ralph Yarborough; For Lt. Governor, 1. C. T. Johnson; 2. Ben Ramsey; 3. George T. Hinson; Attorney General, 1. John Ben Shepperd; 2. Doug Crouch; United States Senator, 1. Dudley Tarlton Dougherty; 2. Lyndon B. Johnson; For Congressman-at-large, Martin Dies; For Commissioner of Agriculture, John C. White; Commissioner of Land Office, Bascom Giles; Treasurer of State of Texas Jesse James; Railroad Commissioner, Ernest O. Thompson; Comptroller of Public Accounts, Robert S. Calvert State Supreme Court (Chief Justice), J. E. Hickman, For Place No. 1, Few Brester; Alfred Scott; Robert B. Keenan, Place No. 2 Clde Smith; For Court of Criminal Appeals, 1. W. C. Graves 2. Alan Haley; 3. Lloyd W. Davidson; 4. Sam Davis.

Home Runs Deck Junior Boys Softball League

The Junior Boys Softball league saw two good nip and tuck ball games batted out Monday at the City Park, Coach Leo Jackson, director of the Summer Recreation Program reported.

The Indians opened up the night's activities by beating the Cardinals 7 to 6. It was the third inning rally that gave the win to the Indians when Jimmy Smalley knocked a home run with the bases loaded. Besides Smalley's home run, Bobby Elliott and Butch Malone of the Cardinals also hit homers.

The thrilling game was pitched by Griffin Barrett for the winning team and Bobby Brantley for the losing team. Completing the batter for the Indians was Johnny Moseley and catcher for the Cardinals was Bobby Elliott.

Smalley's homer in the third was followed by another rally in the bottom of the fifth when the Indians came from behind and marked up three scores to take the ball game. The Cardinals scored two points in the second inning, three runs in the third and only 1 in the fifth.

Archie Marez was also named an outstanding batter for the winning team by getting two singles. Bobby Elliott led the Cardinals with one home run and three singles.

The Indians are managed by Pete Kunz while the losing team was coached by Grady Allen, Jr. and Nathan Offield.

In the second game of the evening it was the Gas House gang that beat the Yankies 6 to 4.

Chilie Williams was acredited with the win with Lee Hollas doing the catching. Battery for the Yankies was Luther Barrett behind the plate and Arthur Marek, pitcher.

The Yankies scored two of their runs in the second inning and one each in the fourth and fifth. A rally fell short in the bottom of the fifth when the Yankies had three men on base and Marek grounded out ending the rally and inning. The Gas House Gang made three of their points in the second and three more in the fourth.

Charlie Swift lead the winning team with a double while the leading hitter in the Yankies was Gerald Witt who collected two singles.

Coaching the winning team was Preston Reichert and Charlie Michalka. Managing the Yankies are George Hollas and John Moseley.

Scott Irvin also reported that a good turn out was had at the tennis Courts when the senior boys instructions were held.

Monthly Report Of Milam Health Unit Released By Directors

Compiled by Milam County Health Unit

The mobile x-ray unit from the State Health Department spent the last two weeks in May in Milam County during which time 4,879 x-rays were made. Although this was less than the number taken in either 1952 or 1953, the decrease could be attributed to a number of factors, many of which were uncontrollable. Good weather following a rain kept the farm population surrounding Thorndale from coming in for x-rays. A breakdown for three hours on Saturday in Cameron caused an estimated loss of 300 to 450 x-rays. Wet weather prevented rural people from coming into Buckholts over roads under construction. Since the survey was made so late in May the high schools were on the verge of being closed and the students were not x-rayed on masses in either Cameron or Rockdale.

Only a few children for their second immunizations and readings of smallpox at the Rocgdale preschool roundup. Failure to obtain more was attributed to lack of newspaper publicity.

Regular routine inspections of food and other establishments have been made during the month of May. All tourist courts and trailor parks in the area were inspected by the Sanitarian. Approval placards will be delivered at an early date to those that were approved.

The Sanitarian worked in Cameron with R. F. Holbert of the Food and Drug Division during the month in checking and supervising new private water supplies in the area.

Visitors for the month were Miss Patricia Glesor, D. N. Public Health Nurse, National Instatute of Health, Bethesda, Maryland; Charles O. Blalock, Vocational Rehabilitation, Texas Education Agency; R. F. Holbert, Food and Drug Division, State Health Department; Kenneth Crowell and Peter Ezbra, x-ray technicians, TB Division, State Health Department; Miss Marguerite Cunningham, Field Supervising Nurse, State Health Department and Miss Marguerite Cunningham, Field Supervising Nurse, State Health Department and Mrs. Nell Faulkner, Clerical Supervisor, State Health Department.

Staff personnel include Dr. John B. Bryson, director, Mrs. Hortense Tumlinson, clerk, Mrs. Billie Gleason, nurse and D. S. Wimberly, sanitarian.

Milam Castor Beans Are In Need of Rain

Milam castor bean farmers dropped the acreage of planted beans this year according to officials from the Production Marketing Administration. The drop of almost two hundred acres was expected for this year's price support is lower than the 1953 support.

During last year, approximately 780 acres of castor beans were planted, while this year the total has dropped to 600.

PMA officials reported that the county beans have been doing very good, however, the acreage of beans could use some rain.

Graded Egg Program Brings Producer Above Average Prices

A cooperative effort known as the Graded Egg Program is bringing the producer above average prices for his eggs.

Walter Lester of the Cameron Seed Company explaines it this way:

"When the producer brings the eggs to us, we advance him the market price for the eggs, then put them in cold storage. On Monday of each week we send them to Fort Worth where they are graded into several different classifications, with each grade receiving corresponding price. On Thursdays we receive the grades from Fort Worth and pay out customers accordingly."

"Through this program the customer is assured of getting at least market price for his eggs, and in almost all cases, much more and Lester cautioned the producer to keep his eggs cool to reduce spoilage.

Marylene and Virginia Peirce were visiting recently in Hempstead in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otho Warren.
